To be sure — in Eindhoven

Eindhoven is a city to be proud of. Things are going well in Eindhoven. More so, for many of us things are better than ever. But not for everybody.

Take away worries en make dreams come true - that's what we've worked hard for in the past years. We built thousands of houses. Also on high-profile locations for affordable prices. We created more jobs in the city by convincing more companies to settle in Eindhoven. And we made Eindhoven more fun with a smile in the streets like in the 'Silly Walks Tunnel'.

On March 21 the elections are all about this question: do we choose to continue this path? Building your and my city together. A proud Eindhoven, where everybody can live and work, be young and grow old, laugh and enjoy. Some people emphasize the differences and choose to increase the gap. We focus on the connection to make our city and each other stronger!

Will you join us?
